

Is your family affected by parental imprisonment?

If so, you are not alone!

Families First is a new Worcestershire service offering whole support for families with a parent in prison or about to be sentenced.

We want you to know, you do have someone to talk to.

We are here to support you and your children, helping your family cope with the demands of having a loved one in prison,

Working together we can provide you with the practical and emotional support you need.

Families First can help if you live in Worcestershire and belong to a family with at least one child up to the age of 19 years.

To self refer, or to refer someone to the Families First service please email: familiesfirst@yss.org.uk
